*CALL TO WORSHIP (Responsively)

Sisters and brothers, as we gather in the welcome of God's love, as we gather in the joy of our unity in Christ, as we gather in the power of the Holy Spirit, let us listen for the voice of God.

Let us worship God, who has spoken, and still speaks, to those who attend to the roar and the whisper of the Holy One.

*OPENING PRAYER (In Unison)

Holy Spirit of God, who gathers the church into one body, gather us once again into your presence and strengthen the bonds of affection that hold your people together. Bless us with grace to cooperate with one another in love and service that we may be the signs of your uniting love to our fractured world. Teach us to show compassion for those in need, to face challenges with holy imagination, and to counter disappointments with prayerful trust so that your church may live according to your will. Amen.

EPISTLE LESSON

2 Timothy 1:1-14 (NRSV)

¹ Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, for the sake of the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus, ²To Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

³I am grateful to God—whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did—when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. ⁴Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. ⁵I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. ⁶For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands; ⁷for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

⁸Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, ⁹who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, ¹⁰but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. ¹¹For this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher, ¹²and for this reason I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know the one in whom I have put my trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard until that day what I have entrusted to him. ¹³Hold to the standard of sound teaching that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us.

*The Word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God.

Thanksgiving: More than just one day

With Turkey Day leftovers dwindling in the fridge, it's time to think about carrying the spirit of gratitude throughout the year. Scripture implores us to "give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you" (1 Thessalonians 5:18).

It is a spiritual practice of many religions and a hallmark of Christianity: gratitude, giving thanks, showing appreciation for all that we have, and the wonderful world God gave us. Gratitude journals and lists are all the rage in popular culture, but how often do we plan thankfulness as an activity of the church? Here are several ideas for bringing people together in the joyous practice of gratitude.

Grateful groups. Sometimes when adults get together, we can focus on the problems, oops, challenges we have. It is easy to complain about what is not going well; what if you started a meeting by asking everyone to share something that is going right? Perhaps plan a meeting or Sunday School class around gratitude – only. If you host dinner clubs or small groups, ask each member to share what they appreciate most in life in place of saying grace. Let gratitude be your prayer.

Post it Not everyone is on Facebook. Well, OK, my mother's not on Facebook, but as an added visual for your office, why not clear a bulletin board or put up a presentation board for "thank you notes." Just write, "What are you thankful for?" at the top, put out lots of large sticky notes and some pens and see what happens.

Out of the mouths of babes. Children's perspectives are so honest and unique they provide excellent food-for-thought for adults and kids alike. As a Sunday school project, have children draw pictures of things (people or pets) for which they are thankful. Ask them to bring photos or images cut from a magazine of things they appreciate and ask them why they are grateful. Their reasons will no doubt amuse and inspire.

Make it stick. Gratitude is an amazing lens with which to view the world. When we focus on our blessings, we tend to be happier. When we realize how much we possess, we tend to be more thoughtful of those who have less. When we talk about the good together, we tend to appreciate each other more.

Being grateful is really about being more mindful. Perhaps this mindfulness will help us all to focus on the abundance in our lives and how we can share it with others. As we move into the season of Advent, let us do so engaged in the practice of gratitude. And, remember, it only takes about thirty days for a new practice to become a habit.

Thanks be to God!~ United Methodist Communications
