*OPENING PRAYER (In unison)

Creator God, it seems not so long ago we were celebrating Advent, the birth of the Christ child. And now we celebrate another advent: the coming of your Spirit among us and the creation of your church. Empower us as were the saints of long ago who met in the upper room. Fill this room, our hearts and our lives, with Pentecost power as we worship today. Amen.

A RECOGNITION AND CELEBRATION OF OUR NEW MINISTER OF DISCIPLESHIP AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Rev. Kerry L. Greenhill

Dear Friends, today we officially welcome Rev. Kerry Greenhill as our Minister of Discipleship and Community Engagement.

Kerry, you have been sent to live among us as a bearer of the Word of God and a sustainer of the love and discipleship of the people of God here in Hampton. In your ordination to Word and Service as a Deacon in The United Methodist Church, you are called to equip people to be in ministry and in service to the world. Today, we celebrate your entry into your new ministry here at Hampton First United Methodist Church.

Brothers and sisters in Christ, as a people committed to participate in the ministries of the Church by your prayers, your presence, your gifts, your service and your witness, will you celebrate this new beginning and support and uphold Rev. Kerry in her ministry with us?

We affirm our commitment to support Rev. Kerry with our prayers, presence, gifts, service and witness.

Let us pray.

O Holy God, strengthen and sustain us in our ministries together, with Rev. Kerry Greenhill as our Minister of Discipleship and Community Engagement. Give her and us patience, courage, and wisdom so to care for one another and challenge one another that together we may follow Jesus' teachings, living together in love. Guide and strengthen Rev. Kerry for her ministry in all that lies ahead, that together we may be one in ministry to all the world; through the One in whom we all are one, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Acts 2:1-21 (The Message)

1-4 When the Feast of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Without warning there was a sound like a strong wind, gale force—no one could tell where it came from. It filled the whole building. Then, like a wildfire, the Holy Spirit spread through their ranks, and they started speaking in a number of different languages as the Spirit prompted them.

5-11 There were many Jews staying in Jerusalem just then, devout pilgrims from all over the world. When they heard the sound, they came on the run. Then when they heard, one after another, their own mother tongues being spoken, they were thunderstruck. They couldn't for the life of them figure out what was going on, and kept saying, “Aren’t these all Galileans? How come we’re hearing them talk in our various mother tongues?”

Parthians, Medes, and Elamites; Visitors from Mesopotamia, Judea, and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene; Immigrants from Rome, both Jews and proselytes; Even Cretans and Arabs! “They’re speaking our languages, describing God’s mighty works!” ¹² Their heads were spinning; they couldn’t make head or tail of any of it. They talked back and forth, confused: “What’s going on here?” ¹³ Others joked, “They’re drunk on cheap wine.”

¹⁴⁻²¹ That’s when Peter stood up and, backed by the other eleven, spoke out with bold urgency: “Fellow Jews, all of you who are visiting Jerusalem, listen carefully and get this story straight. These people aren’t drunk as some of you suspect. They haven’t had time to get drunk—it’s only nine o’clock in the morning. This is what the prophet Joel announced would happen: “In the Last Days,” God says, “I will pour out my Spirit on every kind of people: Your sons will prophesy, also your daughters; Your young men will see visions, your old men dream dreams. When the time comes, I’ll pour out my Spirit on those who serve me, men and women both, and they’ll prophesy. I’ll set wonders in the sky above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and billowing smoke, the sun turning black and the moon blood-red, before the Day of the Lord arrives, the Day tremendous and marvelous; And whoever calls out for help to me, God, will be saved.”

*The Word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God.

The “Red Room” needs restocking! Clean out your closets, check under the bed, simplify! The less stuff you have the more time you will have to spend with God, your family & friends, and maybe someone who doesn't know Jesus! Here's an idea, ask your neighbor if they have stuff they want to give away, if they do, offer to bring it down here. Do them a favor, do us a favor, and make a new friend!!

We will take just about anything (except electronics and furniture). Contact Brad Allsbrook (757) 722-1816 with questions.

Robust prayer catalyst for congregational renewal

If your church or ministry is discouraged and seems stuck in the habit of perennially looking “down and in” with discouragement, an additive component of asking God in your mutual prayer life for new breakthrough possibilities to unfold is a powerful and effective catalyst. It has the miraculous potential to shift your collective gaze “up and out” instead, finally seeing and anticipating where God wants to lead you next. It can transform a church!

Are you praying with low expectations? It's entirely possible for a congregation, for its leaders, and for you personally to have only an intellectual belief in the importance and value of prayer. Prayer might open and close meetings, for example, including naming prayer concerns by those in attendance or asking God to bless ministry efforts already underway. The Lord's Prayer is a sacred, historic ritual repeated together in most churches. And you yourself likely have a prayer life, however informal and sporadic at times it may feel, when you ask God for help, calm, protection, safekeeping, healing for loved ones or yourself, and provision for a need. But once any of those prayers have been offered, do you really believe without question that there will be a Spirit-fueled response unfolding on a divine timeframe, activated by the loving Almighty who is listening? How easy it is unfortunately to pray and then proceed with the reverse, low-expectation attitude that the prayer faces the unlikeliness that God will act.

Here's the difference between simply believing that prayer is important versus committing all you are — your heart, mind, spirit, and will — to the expectation — even conviction — that prayer does make a difference. It's letting go of the assumption that God's supernatural, all-encompassing transformational love should only manifest the way you want and as you request that it should. It's instead surrendering to the profound, game-changing reality that God's all-loving response to your prayers will be in accordance with a far greater miraculous intention beyond what we can ask, think, or imagine. We can ask God as specifically for what we believe would be best while trusting that God's response will be even better or different according to a wisdom far beyond ours.

Are you willing to embrace your prayer life and the prayers of your team and congregation as “spiritual electricity” of a nature that carries a supernatural power and energy directed by God's Spirit? If you choose to make this your unshakable bedrock understanding of prayer, even when you have moments or seasons of human doubt or impatience, you will find yourself and your church living into your prayers with no-holds-barred openness. You will lean toward, grow observant of, and remain surrendered to God's responses. And it will be the path to exciting and challenging spiritual adventures beyond your imagination in your own maturing faith and in God's ability to use you as a world changer for Christ. ~ Lewis Center for Church Leadership
